The vote on prohibition in the Manitoba elections resulted in favor of the measure by a large majority.

La Patrie, of Montreal, has begun a series of attacks on the French Canadian public school system. It demands that the government enforce the principle of compulsory attendance.

The industrial exhibition in Winnipeg opened on the 27th. Over 9,000 people visited the grounds on that day. Thos. Hayward, of Deloraine, took the $125 prize for wheat. Running, 1 mile, Harkaway 1st, Secret 2nd. Stallion race, Largetta 1st. Hurdle race, Ralph B. 1st, Harkaway 2nd. Foot races, Simpson won the mile, Lockhart quarter mile and 100 yards.

LOCAL.

NEW potatoes are in general use in this district.

A SUPPLY of vaccine matter arrived on Monday's train.

A LARGE Dakota party of land prospectors arrived on Monday's train.

THE threatening weather of the past eight or ten days cleared off on Tuesday night.

C. SANDISON began laying sidewalk on Tuesday. The sidewalk is eight feet broad of 2 inch plank, resting on four 2x6 joists.

POPLAR lake cheese factory started work on Wednesday. This makes five cheese factories in the Edmonton district this season.

REV. MR. MORIN left Montreal on Tuesday with a party of French Canadian colonists for Morinville. He is expected here on Monday.

A PARTY of Dakota land prospectors who arrived on Monday's train have been looking up land around Fort Saskatchewan and to-day left for St. Albert on the same mission.

TWO children died within the past week at the town immigrant shed, one of suppressed measles and the other of debility. One child that was suffering from sore throat is recovering.

THREE parties of surveyors are working at re-staking old surveys in townships 55 and 56, in ranges 23 and 24, being in the vicinity of the Sturgeon river mill. From there they will likely go to Riviere Qui Barre and Stony Plain.

THERE is some confusion about hay cutting on odd sections this season. Hay permits on such sections were granted from the government land office and afterwards cancelled on the ground that the land belonged to the C. P. R. The C. P. R. will not issue permits, and the person desiring to cut hay does not know whether the land has passed into private hands or not.

R. F. SHAW, who is working with the surveyors at Sturgeon river, lost a good horse very suddenly last week. As soon as the horse was noticed to be ill Mr. Shaw started for Fort Saskatchewan to secure the services of the police vet; but the horse was dead within two hours after he left him. The vet. pronounced the disease typhoid fever. A horse belonging to J. Dennis, inspector of surveys, was taken ill about the same time, at Fort Saskatchewan, but the disease was checked by the vet. there.

F. D. FORTIN returned from the Landing on Wednesday evening accompanied by Mrs. Fortin.

DAVID DAIGNAULT, who was operated upon for tumor some weeks ago, is able to be around again. The tumor was on the back, near the shoulder, and was very large.

W. G. IBBOTSON and F. Kernoohan have opened a fruit store in the new building now being erected by them on Main street. They propose to deal in fresh fruit and vegetables, confectionery and ice cream.

THE town immigrant shed has been crowded ever since it was opened in the spring, and has come to be in a somewhat unsanitary condition. The town board of health has provided a tent in which a number of the recent arrivals have been accommodated. The building will be thoroughly cleansed before admitting any more immigrants.

W. R. BRERETON, mail contractor, of Egg lake, south of Victoria, was in town this week. Land prospectors are visiting Egg lake in large numbers and express themselves as highly pleased with the district. As yet the land has not been subdivided, which stands greatly in the way of settlement. The settlers have been promised a subdivision shortly.

A. M. NANTON and Mr. Hammond, of Osler, Hammond & Nanton, H. Nanton, agent of the C. & E. land company at Calgary, H. Lumsden, chief engineer on the C. & E. railway, arrived on Monday's train in a private car. They drove to Clover Bar in the south side and back to Edmonton on the north side, on Tuesday. They left for the south on Wednesday's train.

TENDERS are being asked by the postoffice department for a weekly mail from Fort Saskatchewan to Saddle lake and for a fortnightly from Saddle lake to Lac la Biche. This is a change that has been long needed. There should also be a weekly mail to Beaver lake, which is only about twenty miles from a point on the mail route between Fort Saskatchewan and Victoria.

THE Winnipeg Commercial has issued a Kootenay number, setting forth the mining resources of the West Kootenay district of British Columbia, in which the towns of Nelson, Ainsworth, Kaslo and others are situated. The number is in the Commercial's best style, the matter is interesting, instructive and pleasing, the plates clear and good, and the printing unsurpassed. The Kootenay people have chosen a first-class medium through which to advertise their country.

CALGARY despatch to Winnipeg Free Press: "The maritime province delegates arrived here this evening from Edmonton. They express themselves in terms of the most unstinted praise of the Edmonton district, and say that while they were more than pleased with British Columbia and what they saw of Manitoba, they think Edmonton the finest district and prophecy that before ten years Alberta will contain a population of 250,000 people. One delegate grew enthusiastic in speaking of Northern Alberta, and said he never saw or expected to see a country where the conditions were as favorable to mixed farming."

B. B. LARIVIERE trader is on his way in from Lesser Slave lake.

Good progress is being made with the laying of the town sidewalk.

CHECK REINS.

Over 500 veterinary surgeon have signed a paper condemning tight check reins as painful to horses and productive of disease, causing distortion of the windpipe to such a degree as to impede respiration. They mention paralysis of the muscles of the face, megrima, apoplexy, coma and inflammation as some of the results of its use. The over check rein will often cause a horse to become knee sprung. It destroys the delicate sensitiveness to the bit which is most desirable in guiding a horse. Dr. Kitching says: "If a horse pulling a load has his head held in by a check rein, he cannot throw his weight into his collar, and is hindered from giving his body that position which is more natural and effective." He goes on to speak of the consequent strain of his limbs and muscles, and the injury caused by the constrained position of the head, whereby the breathing and circulation are affected, and the horse made restless, irritable and uncomfortable, he says: "The checkrein inflicts unceasing torture upon the animal in another way. By holding the head upwards, it puts the muscles of the neck on a constant strain. They become painfully uneasy and tired. If the horse cannot bear it, he rests the weight of his head upon the rein, and his mouth is violently stretched. Thus, he only exchanges one torment for another. To sum up, in a word, the check rein lessens a horse's strength; brings on disease; keeps him in pain; injures and inflames his mouth; and spoils his temper."

A terrible boating accident occurred in Toronto on July 17th. Four young men named H. Broughall, G. F. McNider, E. R. Ricketts and G. S. Kirkpatrick started on a return trip from Frenchman's Bay, on lake Ontario, to Toronto on that day in a small sail boat. About two o'clock in the afternoon the boat was upset by a squall, about four miles from shore. All of the young men were good swimmers and attempted to right the boat, but were unable to do so, as the wind was too high. After hanging on to the boat for hours in the cold water and stormy weather, McNider let go and sank, and not long after Broughall did the same. Kirkpatrick and Ricketts hung on until about midnight when the mast having dropped out they succeeded in righting the boat and gaining the shore. They were completely exhausted and their bodies benumbed and terribly lacerated, but they will probably recover. Kirkpatrick is a brother to G. R. F. Kirkpatrick, manager of the Imperial bank, Edmonton.

THE MANITOBA ELECTIONS.

The Manitoba elections are over and the province and country at large are to be congratulated on the result. In the ordinary course of events the province is assured that the financial, railway and school policy now prevailing, will be continued for four years more, at least—the policy which reduced the unprofitable expenditures of the province so greatly, which extended its railway facilities so largely, and which placed its school system, for the first time, on a square business basis. It speaks well for the intelligence of the electors that in spite of the most outrageous storm of malicious falsehood that could possibly be imagined, with which the Greenway government was assailed, and in spite of the fact that the large majority of the electors were not politically allied with that government, they have seen fit to return it to power by a good working majority. It was impossible that the system of government of the people, by the people, for the people, inaugurated in Manitoba by Mr. Greenway as distinguished from government of the people by the government (for the party and its hangers on, which had hitherto prevailed should not raise up against him a storm of opposition. There was nothing for the "boys," for the "heelers," for the "wire pullers" or for the "press," in a policy of economy, or straight business. Therefore, ever since the character of his government was discovered a dead set has been made at him and his colleagues in every possible way, which latterly from a discussion of principles has become a mere exercise in mud slinging.

While Mr. Greenway is to be congratulated on having won the elections the opposition—that is the Free Press—is to be congratulated on having, without the faintest shadow of a case or cause, by a straight crusade of slander, succeeded in reducing considerably the government majority. This result speaks more loudly for the power and influence of the Free Press than for the discrimination of the Manitoba electorate.

To individual members the elections have been slaughter all around. On the government side, a minister, D. McLean, an ex-minister, J. A. Smart, and members Crawford, S. Thompson, Hettie and S. J. Thompson have gone under; while the opposition have fared no better, according to their numbers, Roblin and Wood having been defeated. Of important aspirants for honors the opposition lost N. F. Hagel and R. Rogers, and the government S. Mulvey.

Although the opposition to the government was bitter and was distinctly on account of its policy, it was only to that policy that it owes its return. Had Greenway pursued a timorous, do-nothing or retroactive policy he would have been hopelessly defeated on political grounds. But by pursuing an active and aggressive policy he presented fresh issues to the minds of the electors, and they voted on those issues irrespective of party politics. His policy brought him many enemies, but it also brought him many friends who "loved him for the enemies he had made."

Houses in which contagious diseases exist may be isolated and marked. Articles capable of conveying infection, such as clothing, bedding, etc., may be disinfected. No person may be interred within the municipality. Persons who have died of any malignant infectious or contagious disease may be interred immediately on the order of the board of health. The penalty for failure to comply with the requirements of the by-law is a fine up to $50, and, in default, imprisonment up to 30 days, with or without hard labor.

Macleod Gazette: The result of the silence of the Calgary press as regards this matter (small-pox) has probably led to the exaggeration of the real truth, most people, in this section of the country at least, being under the impression that there are about thirteen cases there. Here, in Macleod, we have had only the one case. Every precaution was taken to prevent infection and the quarantine has been strictly maintained. There is absolutely no danger of infection from this patient, who is now rapidly recovering. We consider that it pays in this case, as it generally does, to be perfectly candid with the public. The only effect of the action of the Calgary papers is to arouse suspicion that things are much worse there than they probably really are, if indeed silence at such a time is not criminal.

The people of the old town of Macleod have held a meeting to discuss the question of moving to the railway terminus. They have decided to remain where they are.

Marquette elected N. Boyd, of Carberry, to the Commons by acclamation in place of Watson, resigned. All the members west of Port Arthur are now conservatives.

Rumored that three French Canadian liberal members of parliament, Bruneau, Fauvel and Delisle, will resign their seats and retire from politics.

A great hurricane occurred in South Dakota and Southern Minnesota on July 20th. Several people were killed by lightning and falling buildings.

Jas. Reilly, of Calgary, has been appointed an immigration agent and dairy commissioner to visit Iowa at Canadian government expense.

As the C. P. R. will not give a rate of less than a fare and a third, for the round trip, the Calgary baseballers will not visit Edmonton.

Premier Robson, of British Columbia, died from blood poisoning resulting from a bruised finger.

The Macleod Gazette has been leased to Gordon Mathews.

A severe hail storm is reported at Fort Qu'Appelle.

Macleod is suffering for rain.
